

Volunteers wanted to inspire the next generation

Do you live or work in Hackney, have you attended school or have a life connection to the Borough? Are you passionate about empowering young men to achieve their full potential?

If you are an entrepreneur, have started your own business, work in the social care sector, the creative industries or any non-traditionally male dominated sector; if you had to overcome personal and professional boundaries to get to where you are today in your career or had to go through career changes; if you didn't have an easy ride or you are still pursuing your dream or simply have an interesting story to share, Please get in touch!

The Event

When: Wednesday 8 October 2017 12-4pm

Where: Forest Road Youth Hub, 29 Forest Road, Hackney, London E8 3BY

What: Volunteers will facilitate table discussions about their career journey, network with young men, answer to their questions and provide career advice on their field of expertise in an informal and friendly way.

The Volunteer

The ideal candidate will:

- be a male professional
- live or work or have attended school in Hackney or have a good understanding of Hackney's youth
- be sociable, easy to engage with and able to challenge young people in a positive way
- have an interesting career story to share and be willing to answer to young men's questions and provide with career advice in their field.

The tasks

- attend a briefing prior to the event
- facilitate a 'speed dating' table discussion and talk to young men about your career journey
- talk to and engage with young men in a positive way
- be prepared to answer to young men's questions in a positive and thought provoking way
- network with the young men and offer career advice on your field of expertise
- Have fun!

Light lunch will be provided and we can reimburse your travel expenses. If interested please contact: Xanthippi Karkantou xanthippi.karkantou@hackney.gov.uk
020 8356 3962

